

Report for WCP

I am very happy to cooperate with the International Congress of Psychotherapy in Paris. We will set up an Asian Congress of Psychotherapy in April 2016 in Iran. In this conference and other national conferences, professional psychologist and students will encourage to participate in the 2017 Paris Congress.

Fields of counseling, clinical psychology, health psychology, had established in Iran, but psychotherapy didn't establish as a specialized field. The practice of psychotherapy is within the area of clinical psychology. The practice of counseling and family therapy are growing in Iran. Majority of Universities have Faculty of Psychology and Education, department of psychology and counseling center which have counselors, psychotherapists, psychiatrist and social workers. The use of the title of psychologist, counsellor, clinical psychologist are restricted for professionals registered in the Psychology and Counseling Organization of Iran

We are going to work on to establish Iranian Psychotherapy Association.
